

Isabel Guitteau

(202)-243-8181

iguittea@ucsd.edu

Environmental Experience

California Ecology and Conservation - Field Course

June 2022 - August 2022

- Field research- based course, conducted group projects becoming familiar with California fire ecology, and able to conduct PH testing, Percolation testing, and set up wildlife cameras
- Published paper on post-fire changes to vegetation and herbivory patterns in a shrub-grassland interface in the Landels-Hill Big Creek Reserve
- Organized research finding into PowerPoint and presented to large groups

Volunteer at Center for Ecological Research, Erichidia, Morocco -Internship

July 2018

- Two-week program to assist Saker Falcon breeding program director
- Responsibilities included assist in the maintenance of facilities, regular feedings, and care for the saluki dogs
- Became familiar with aspects of Saker falcon ecology including habitat range, morphology, breeding behavior, prey relations, and importance of falcons to Qatar cultural and Arab culture at large

Related Activities

Gardening Club, supported all aspects of greenhouse-based vegetable production, including planting, watering, and harvesting of product sold to school faculty and students (2017 - 2018)

Audubon Summer Camp counselor, led nature walks and planned arts and crafts and science activities for kids (2015)

Work Experience

Georges At the Cove, La Jolla -Hostess

June 2021- November 2021

- Responsible for hostess table and monitored dining area arranging seating for patrons to ensure an organized distribution of guests to waiting and kitchen staff
- Managed telephone guest inquiries, customer service requests, and reservation bookings
- Within a month of employment began training new hires in the position

Beefsteak, Washington D.C. - Counter Server – Hostess

October 2018 - February 2019

- Responsible for food preparation, food service, and the upkeep of work and customer dining areas
- Ran cash register and provided attentive customer service to in store and online patrons

University of California, San Diego - B.S. in Environmental Systems (EBE)

September 2019 – Present

- Member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority

Woodrow Wilson Senior High School, Washington D.C. – Diploma

September 2015 - June 2019

- Capitan, Women's Varsity Soccer

Skills

- Fluent in written and spoken Spanish
- Proficient in MP®, Version 16.0. SAS Institute Inc Statistical Software Program
- Proficient in Microsoft Excel
- Proficient in Minitab Statistical Software

Awards

- Earned the Seal of Biliteracy with distinction in 2019 for Spanish Language Proficiency
- UCSD Shores Scholarship Recipient
- DC Tag Scholarship Recipient

References: Alberto Palleroni, PHD, Harvard animal behavior aliparti@icloud.com

